Australian Government
Australian Maritime Safety Authority

NOTIFICATION OF FLARE DEMONSTRATION

(To be dispatched to arrive approximately one week before planned demonstration)

Joint Rescue Coordination Centre
Australian Maritime Safety Authority
GPO Box 2181
Canberra City ACT 2601
(Fax 02 6230 6868)
rccaus@amsa.gov.au

NOTE: 1. Marine Order 27, Sub-section 40(2) requires that advance notice be given to the Joint Rescue Coordination Centre of the intention to hold demonstrations of distress signals or devices that could be mistaken for distress signals.

2. Persons proposing to discharge distress signals should also comply with any State or Territory requirements.

3. A copy of this advice should accompany notification to local Police and to relevant Marine and Defence Agencies likely to have units operating within 40km of the demonstration location.

Copy to (refer to Note 3 above)

eg State Police/Water Police, Volunteer Marine Rescue Association, Port Authority

Location

Site of demonstration in relation to well known local geographical location
Organisation
Latitude S	Longitude E

Date and time of demonstration

Date	Start of activity ☐ am ☐ pm	End of activity ☐ am ☐ pm

Type and number to be discharged

☐ Hand held flares Number:

☐ Hand held orange smoke signals Number:

☐ Rocket parachute flares Number:

☐ Other/comments (includes fireworks displays)

Contact

Name
Telephone - business hours: - after hours:

Contact during demonstration

Name
Telephone: Mobile: