6 Delegation

A person holding or performing the duties of a position in AMSA is delegated the power of AMSA or the National Marine Safety Regulator in accordance with Schedules 1 to 14.

Note A delegate of the National Marine Safety Regulator is subject to the National Marine Safety Regulator's directions in exercising delegated powers and performing delegated functions — see subsection 11(2) of the national law.

7 Authorisation

A person holding or performing the duties of a position in AMSA is authorised to exercise the power of the National Marine Safety Regulator under the national law in accordance with Schedule 14.

8 Change of title of position or class of positions

If there is a change to the title of a position or class of positions mentioned in any Schedule, that does not in and of itself affect the power that is permitted to be exercised in accordance with this instrument.

Note The effect of this provision is that despite a title change, a position is permitted to continue to exercise a power in accordance with this instrument until there has been an express change in writing to the power delegated or authorised to be exercised.
