

Restricted Pilot Licence

A person is eligible to apply for a restricted pilot licence, for a stated pilotage area and a stated draught limit, if the person, at the time of applying for the licence:

(a) holds a trainee pilot licence that is:

- (i) in force; or
- (ii) not in force, and not suspended or cancelled; and

(b) holds a Certificate of Medical Fitness; and

(c) has satisfactorily completed all of the following:

- (i) an approved program of training;
- (ii) a competency assessment;
- (iii) a written examination conducted by AMSA;
- (iv) a fatigue management training course approved by AMSA;
- (v) an oral examination approved by AMSA.