

Australian Search and Rescue Award

NOMINATION

This nomination is to be submitted by an individual or organisation in the belief that the nominee has fulfilled the award criteria. Details of the nomination and any supporting evidence (such as photographs, reports, letters, witness contact details etc) should be attached to the nomination form.

THE AWARD

The Australian Search and Rescue Award is presented annually by the National Search and Rescue (SAR) Council. The National SAR Council includes representatives of Commonwealth, State and Territory SAR authorities.

The National SAR Council trusts that this award will not only give recognition to those involved in Search and Rescue in Australia but will raise community awareness about their efforts.

Judging of nominations will be on the basis of information contained in the nomination form and supporting documentation. However, nominees may also be required to attend an interview with the selection committee prior to the announcement of the name of the successful award nominee. The decision of the selection committee will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

If, in the opinion of the selection committee, there is no entry of sufficiently high standard to qualify, a decision may be made not to make the award for any given year.

AWARD CRITERIA

- This prestigious award is in recognition of an 'Outstanding contribution to search and rescue' within the Australian region. The successful nominee will have made a significant contribution to Australia's Search and Rescue ability or to the saving of a human life.
- The award is open to any individual or organisation and may relate to a particular event or a sustained contribution over a period of time.
