Have you considered all the risks?

EXAMPLE

STEP 1
Hazard identification

STEP 2
Risk assessment

STEP 3
Control

STEP 4 SMS/review

The table below contains examples of risks that an operator of a small vessel may identify when undertaking a risk assessment for their vessel operation. These examples are indicative only, they are not intended to be taken as definitive or applicable for any particular vessel or operation.

HAZARD	RISK	CONTROLS	CONTROLS IN PLACE: YES/NO
Person overboard	 Drowning Injury Exposure to elements 	 Remain seated while in motion Three points of contact Lifejackets worn at all times Anti-slip decks Person overboard procedure and drills Life rings 	Yes
Capsize	 Drowning Injury Exposure to elements Loss of vessel 	 Level flotation Gear secured correctly Adequate power Avoid bad weather Bilge alarm and pump Plugs/bungs Lifejacket worn at all times 	Yes

